KUMYSS.

Milk Wine.

IS GETTING TO BE THE MAIN RELIance of the physician in all cases of debility in which prompt improvement of the general tone is imperative. Kumyss is the blandest and most easily digested food, and as such the best nourishment for a weak stomach; at the same time, through the process of fermentation which Kumyss undergoes, medicinal qualities are developed which we vainly look for in materia medica, in nausea, vomiting, extreme cases of dyspepsia, Kumyss acts like a charm, promptly relieving all the distressing symptoms of such cases. When the stomach rejects all else, Kumyss is retained and assimilated, affording the patient nourishment, strength and comfort, and as a consequence, nervousness ceases and refreshing sleep follows. In scarlet, in remittent and typhoid fever Kumyss is the best diet. It satisfies thirst and hunger and allays the fever. It is also highly recommended in consumption as tonic and restorative. But not only in extreme cases should Kumyss be resorted to; it should be the chief remedy for a weak stomach.

The dyspeptic brain worker with a few glasses of Kumyss a day will improve his digestion, and nerve force. Ladies would be less nervous, more vigorous and healthier looking, if they should add to their daily diet a few glasses of Kumyss.

OZŒNA.

Ozœna is the professional or technical name given to an advanced form of catarrh in which ulceration has eaten through the membrane lining of the nose to the cartilage of the bone. Any case of catarrh may end in ozœna, but it most frequently occurs in those who are naturally scrofulous. The discharge takes place through the nostrils or through the throat, and is generally of a yellowish or greenish-yellow color, frequently tinged with blood, and almost always attended by an offensive smell. In the language of Dr. Woodbridge, of Philadelphia, "the disease is one of the most obdurate and disagreeable which the physician has to encounter. In bad cases the breath of the patient becomes so revolting as to isolate him from society, and render him an object of disgust even to himself."

In some instance pieces of bone become separated and slough off, leaving deep, unhealthy ulcers, which secrete a blood matter, and are extremely difficult to heal.

After ozœna has continued some time the sense of smell becomes impaired and often lost.

Deafness is one of its most common consequences and results from its extension through the eustachian tube to the internal ear.

Pains in the head and over the frontal sinuses, impairing memory and even insanity frequently springs from its extension to the brain.

The greatest danger, however, because the most common, is that it will extend downward and affect the lungs. In most cases of pulmonary disease catarrh is present in some degree, and in many instances it causes a large share of the patient's discomfort.

Besides these grave consequences, all of which are liable to spring from scrofulous catarrh or ozœna, there are others which, if less dangerous, are sufficiently unpleasant. It occasions great unhappiness to thousands of both sexes, by isolating them and preventing their settlement in life. An offensive running from the nose, with foul breath, is about as great a calamity as can befall young people.

ORMAN DIGNA still has that chip on his soldier. Osman was born in Ireland.

GENERAL GRANT desires it to be distinctly understood that he alone is the author of his forthcoming book.

THE funeral of General McDowell took place in San Francisco yesterday, with military honors. "Rest, soldier, rest, thy warfare o'er."

RIEL'S rebellion is progressing, and the Canadian government is not coping with it successfully. The half-breeds have won another battle.

THE Evening Express is a very foolish paper—a sort of Edward Everett Bell in journalism. It is constantly prating of its "influence." A journal that possesses real influence has no occasion to be eternally sounding its bazoo and proclaiming the fact.

THE execution, at Columbus, of all persons in Ohio who are convicted of murder is proposed. It is a curious notion, the reason for which we have not read. We can well understand that it is objectionable to the citizens of the capital city.

POSTMASTER FRANK W. PALMER, of Chicago, has received the g. b. at the hands of the Administration. He has been an "offensive partisan," so "Bill Vilas" says. In the language of the poet, we are constrained to remark "Bully for Palmer!"

MR. HENDRICKS's demand to have the books examined has resulted, so far as the United States Treasury is concerned, in a startling revelation. Two cents have been found missing from a five-dollar package of pennies in the cash room—"only this, and nothing more."

DR. FORDYCE BARKER adheres to his expressed conviction that General Grant has cancer of the tongue, and says it can have "but one result"—by which we are given to understand that a fatal result is still predicted. If the prayers and heartfelt wishes of a nation could make it otherwise, the physician's dire prediction would never come true.

THE English back-down is a fact accomplished. It cannot longer be concealed. The Gladstone government has decided not to fight, but will leave the adjudication of the trouble with Russia to a friendly power, probably Germany, and will consent to the Russian possession of Penjdeh permanently, without doubt. The concession will be a weakness. It will outrage the Afghans, disgust Englishmen, embolden Russia, jeopardize the safety of Herat, endanger the British power in India, and possibly overthrow the Gladstone government.

THE Alta California makes the following just and friendly mention of the late General McDowell: "By the death of General Irwin McDowell, which occurred in this city last night, one more of the leading actors in the great drama of the civil war is removed. General McDowell's services to his country were important and valuable, and he will live in history as one of the great organizers of the armies which brought victory to the flag of the Union. To the people of San Francisco, among whom he resided so long, General McDowell was endeared by many ties of a social and personal nature."

AN ex-Assemblyman appeared in one of the New York Magistrate's courts as the defender of a lot of burglars and thieves, who had been arrested for creating a disturbance, thinking they would be useful to him at the next election. He claimed that they were "honest citizens on a little bit of a bat," and pleaded so earnestly that the justice discharged them all. The attorney subsequently discovered that his gold watch and chain had been stolen by some of his honest clients, and he now wishes he had let justice take its course. It is a satisfaction to know that occasionally truculent attorneys who make themselves the champions of known criminals come to grief.

The Azusa Water Troubles.

To the Editor of the Times—SIR: Seeing the report of our water troubles from the Covina correspondent, and, as there are always two sides to any question, we wish to exhibit ours. In the year 1884 the Azusa Water Developing Company, failing to develop more than twenty-five inches of water in the tunnel in the San Gabriel Cañon, started a new enterprise, in building a fifteen head ditch from the Phillips tract to the San Gabriel river, spending some $1200 on the same, and on nearing the river, they coming alongside of the Azusa ditch, they cut into the same and diverted the entire flow of same into their ditch for a distance of ninety feet (filling up the Azusa ditch for that distance and then returning only a portion of the flow of the water to the Azusa ditch), Mr. Phillips claiming that the law gave him the right to take up all the waters of the San Gabriel river, and return to us such a portion as in his judgment we were entitled to. Things continuing in that condition until there was only enough water for the old district the Commissioners went and returned the water to the old ditch. In a few days Mr. Baldridge went before Judge Brunson and swore out an injunction to prevent the Commissioners from interfering with their ditch, and while it was being served the other parties went and returned the water (the entire flow) to their ditch. On getting a hearing before Judge Brunson the injunction was so modified as to give us possession of our ditch with the capacity of same, the Commissioners returning the water to same again. Mr. Baldridge went before Judge Brunson again, swearing out a warrant for contempt of court against the Commissioners, placing them under arrest. The other parties then thinking they had things their way went at once and turned the water out of the Azusa ditch again, and in a short time about twenty-five men got together and returned the water to the Azusa ditch. The Commissioners coming before Judge Brunson, the case was indefinitely postponed. Mr. Baldridge then and there swore out warrants for fourteen of the twenty-five for misdemeanor, and on the 2d day of this month Mr. Baldridge swore out another injunction, and as before, while it was being served the parties went and returned the water to the company's ditch. But they miscalculated the time, and before the officer could get around the water was returned, and at the present time the water is held by a guard, until a decision of the court can be reached, which all hope will soon be done. Up to Saturday we of the Azusa have been acting on the defensive, but now we shall take the offensive side of the question. E. PLURIBUS UNUM.

VETERANS' REUNION

The Army of the Potomac Society in Baltimore.

GEN. GRANT RE-ELECTED PRESIDENT

The Next Meeting to be Held in San Francisco—A Camp of Ex-Confederates Visit the Society by Invitation.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

BALTIMORE, May 6.—The business meeting of the society of the Army of the Potomac was held at Ford's Grand Opera House to-night. General King said he was commissioned by General Grant to say he was greatly disappointed at not being able to preside over the deliberations of the society, but his sympathy and heart were with his old comrades. Major General Hunt assumed the chair with thanks for the cordial reception given him. The reunion of 1886 will be held at San Francisco. General Vandervort stated the national encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic would probably be held there next year, and that the California Legislature had appropriated $25,000 for the entertainment of visitors, provided both organizations came at the same time. Cheap railroad fares were promised and a royal welcome guaranteed. Nominations for officers for the ensuing year being in order, General John C. Robinson advanced on crutches. He thanked his friends for the mention of his name for the position of Commander of the Army of the Potomac, but would under no circumstance allow it to be used in opposition to that of the illustrious soldier now holding the position, and he moved the Secretary be authorized to cast one ballot, on which be inscribed the name of General Grant. The various various corps associations seconded General Robinson's motion, and it was carried by a standing vote, amid the wildest enthusiasm. The other officers were re-elected.

General W. H. Brown, of Washington, suggested that as R. E. Lee Camp, of Richmond, Va., were in the immediate neighborhood, it would be both generous and graceful to invite them to occupy seats in our house and make their acquaintance. A motion to that effect was made and seconded, when two or three men jumped up and violently opposed such proceedings, one of them saying that rebels, no matter how repentant, had no interest in the business of union soldiers, and that their presence was an insult which he could not endure. Nearly every man in the house was instantly on his feet trying to make himself heard, and for a while there was a scene of wild confusion which threatened to culminate in personal encounters. The chairman vainly endeavored to secure order and threatened to call the police. Quiet was finally restored and a committee appointed to invite the ex-Confederates to meet their old opponents when the business of the meeting was disposed of. After adjournment the committee came in, bringing with them a long string of men in gray suits. They were greeted with great applause, and in return filled the house with genuine rebel yells. The ex-Confederates were scattered among the blue coats and their officers invited to the stage. Colonel Martin Maginnis, of Montana, welcomed them and General Cook responded. Short addresses were also made by Colonel Charles Marshall, Chief of General Lee's staff, and Colonel Evans, of Richmond. The reception later, in the Opera House, was a brilliant success. Hundreds of ladies were present. On the stage were many men distinguished in military circles. In the audience were R. E. Lee Camp of ex-Confederates.

General King, secretary of the society, read the following telegram from General Grant:

"Please thank the members of the society of the Army of the Potomac for their partiality in electing me for a second time their president. I wished my health promised the probability of my being at their next meeting. I should regard it as providential should I be able to attend, but I accept the honor, though without the hope of performing the duties of the office. Wishing all members many happy reunions, I remain yours,

(Signed) U. S. GRANT."

CUTTING RATES.

Reduction of Emigrant Rates to the Pacific Coast.

NEW YORK, May 6.—The cut in a certain class of passenger rates from this city to the Pacific Coast is exciting considerable attention in railroad circles. When inquiry on the subject was made to-day by a reporter, he was informed in the office of a well-known ticket broker that the New York West Shore and Buffalo Railroad was responsible for this movement. At the Erie office the general western passenger agent said that while the old emigrant rate from this city to San Francisco was $65, tickets were sold in Europe in connection with steamship tickets for about $50. About the first of the year this reduction was based upon the reduction of fare between Missouri river and San Francisco, which was made in order to compete with a route by way of New Orleans. The recent cut originated with the Ontario and Western road, which had placed on sale in this city through a broker tickets that were designed to be sold only in Europe to genuine emigrants. The practice, which began some weeks ago, had compelled the roads to sell their mixed tickets at the same ruling rate of $45, these tickets taking the place of the old emigrants, except on the Pennsylvania road alone.

An Irish Local Government Bill.

LONDON, May 6.—An Irish local government bill will probably be introduced in Parliament before the close of the present session. The new measure provides for a properly elected Council in each county, whose duty it shall be to conduct the administration of business hitherto relegated to Grand Juries. Provision is also made for a Central Council in Dublin, to be elected by the County Councils. This Council will discharge the functions of the Boards of Education and Public Works, etc. It is also meditated to abolish the Lord Lieutenancy and create a Secretary of State for Ireland, but this is still undecided. It is not unlikely the measure will be passed this year.

Refused the Right of Habeas Corpus.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Judge Toohy to-day, in the case of Julius Kaulbach, a deserter from the army, confined in the federal prison at Alcatraz, decided that State courts have no habeas corpus power over federal prisoners. He based his decision on that of the Supreme Court, which says: "Judges of State courts authorized by the laws of their States to issue writs of habeas corpus, have the right to issue a writ in any case where the party is alleged to be illegally confined within their limits, unless it appear that he is confined under authority of the United States government. If such fact appear upon the application the writ should be refused."

Collision on a Chinese River.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—The steamer City of Rio Janeiro arrived with Hong Kong dates to April 7, and Yokahama to the 17th. A collision occurred March 28, on the Huayajapa river between the Chinese ferry-steamer Lin Yun, plying between Woosong and Shanghai, and the Ocean Steamship Company's steamer Orestes. The Chinese steamer, which carried about one hundred passengers and a crew numbering twelve, was cut in two. All but thirty-two of the passengers and seven of the crew are believed to have perished.

Arabs Asking English Protection.

SUAKIN, May 6.—Lord Wolseley is slightly indisposed. It is believed here that Osman Digna is engaged in collecting an army, but owing to the scarcity of food at his command, he cannot become sufficiently formidable to call for a British expedition against him. The Tokar Arabs ask English protection against Osman, and almost all the other tribes are willing to submit if the English will promise to remain in the country and protect them from the vengeance of Osman Digna.

The Denver and Rio Grande Strike.

DENVER, May 6.—Nothing of importance has developed in the strike of the Denver and Rio Grande shop employes to-day except that new men are being hired as rapidly as possible to take the place of the strikers, and that freight trains are beginning to move. Passenger trains have not been interfered with. Other than this the situation is unchanged.

Minister Phelps Sails for His Post.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Hon. E. J. Phelps, United States Minister to England, sailed to-day for Europe on the North German Lloyd steamer Elbe, accompanied by his wife.

Will Visit California.

LONDON, May 6.—Arthur Sullivan, the composer, starts in June on a tour through the United States to California.

WASHINGTON TOPICS.

Count of Funds in the Treasurer's Office Finished.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—Treasurer Jordan says the Treasury count is practically over, and everything found most satisfactory. Three silver dollars, which escaped from a broken package in the silver vault, have been found, so the only discrepancy is two cents missing from a five-dollar package of pennies in the cash room. Yesterday a heavy treasure box, wrapped in red tape and securely bound, was found in an out-of-the-way nook of the vault. The key had been mislaid. A locksmith opened the box, and it was found to contain a bottle of diamonds, a bottle of pearls, a bottle of attar of roses and a lump of gold. One of the old employes identified the articles as presents to President Monroe about the year 1823 from the Japanese government, and which had been stored in the Treasury pending the passage of an act of Congress authorizing their acceptance. Congress failed to legislate on the subject, and the articles were deposited in the Treasury, where they have remained ever since.

CHICAGO POSTMASTER REMOVED.

The President has appointed S. Corning Judd postmaster at Chicago, Ills., vice Frank W. Palmer, suspended. It was stated at the Postoffice Department to-day, that Postmaster Palmer was removed for "offensive partisanship." The Postmaster General said Palmer was an active worker in the recent campaign and one of those Republicans whose continuation in office was not deemed advisable by the administration.

WHO JUDD IS.

S. Corning Judd, who was to-day appointed postmaster at Chicago, is an old citizen of Chicago and a prominent member of the Episcopal Church. He is about 55 years of age, a lawyer by profession, and was an applicant for the office of Solicitor-General of the United States. He has always been identified with the Democratic party and is at present a member of the Democratic National Committee from Illinois. He has been a member of the legislature of his State and was a member of the State Constitutional Convention.

COLLECTOR OF INTERNAL REVENUE APPOINTED.

It is understood that James Blackburn, brother of Senator Blackburn of Kentucky, was to-day appointed Collector of Internal Revenue of the Ashland, Kentucky, district, vice Mr. Stoll. Mr. Blackburn's commission has not been issued yet.

MARINES RETURNING FROM PANAMA.

Admiral Jouett informs the Navy Department that everything is quiet on the Isthmus of Panama. He says the Colon will sail from Aspinwall for New York to-morrow, and will carry one-half of the marines sent to the Isthmus some weeks ago.

A NEW MEXICAN DESPERADO.

Caught in an Attempted Robbery, He Kills Seven Persons.

DENVER, Col., May 6.—The Tribune-Republican's special from Fort Stanton, N. M., says: Yesterday, about 3 a. m., at Bonito, fifteen miles from here, Martin Nelson arose from bed and while committing a robbery shot and killed Dr. Wm. H. Flynn, late of Boston, who was sleeping in the same room with Nelson, upstairs in the house of M. S. Maybury. The firing aroused the family, when Nelson shot and killed Maybury, his wife and two sons. A little daughter was wounded fatally. A neighbor was alarmed and came to the house, and he was shot dead. It was supposed the murderer remained in the house, and the citizens watched it to prevent his escape, but at 7 a. m. the guard was surprised to hear a shot from the rear, and Herman Beck fell dead. Nelson then came down the street, firing his Winchester until he was shot dead.

The scene at the house of the Mayburys beggars description. The greatest excitement prevails. In every direction lay dead bodies, clad in night clothes. The little girl was not dead when found, but mortally wounded, and nearly frightened to death. The people of the town were all day yesterday engaged in making coffins. The funerals took place this afternoon. People from the surrounding country are flocking to Bonito. For some time past many robberies have been reported along the valley, including Maybury's house, which are now charged to Nelson.

THE ST. LOUIS HORROR.

The Supposed Murderer Maxwell in Custody at Auckland.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 6.—Chief of Police Crowley received a telegram to-day from the authorities of St. Louis, informing him that W. H. Lennox Maxwell, the murderer of C. Arthur Preller at St. Louis, about April 6th, had been captured at Auckland, New Zealand, on the arrival of the steamer City of Sydney.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—The Chief of Police cabled the American Consul at Auckland this afternoon, instructing him to hold Maxwell at all hazards until an officer from Missouri arrived. He also telegraphed Secretary Bayard that an officer will leave San Francisco for Maxwell on June 6, and urged Bayard, in conjunction with the British minister at Washington, to see that Maxwell is not released on a technicality until the officer arrives.

ST. LOUIS, May 6.—Extradition papers were prepared here to-day to be sent to Auckland, New Zealand, for Maxwell, the Southern Hotel murderer. No agent for the State has yet been appointed to go for Maxwell, there being some doubt as to the manner of his being appointed. There is no need for hurry, however, as the officer who goes cannot leave San Francisco before June 6, when the next Auckland steamer sails.

RIEL'S REBELLION.

Details of Colonel Otter's Fight with the Indians.

BATTLEFORD, May 6.—Further details of the engagement between Colonel Otter's forces and Chief Poundmaker's Indians show the fight lasted seven hours. The Indians used muskets, war clubs, spears, bows and arrows, and every conceivable weapon of warfare. No mention is made in the dispatches of the killed and wounded being brought back, and it is judged from the hasty return march they were left behind. Nothing but the last extremity would induce Otter to do that. No one has any doubt now that a bloody Indian war will follow. The Qu'Appelle Indians are to-day reported to have risen and left their reserve. Crowfoot, chief of the Blackfeet, is related to Poundmaker, and will, it is said, join him against the whites. The Dominion government and Colonel Otter are blamed for not securing the ransom of Factor McLean and the other white captives before precipitating matters. Positive advices from Clark's Crossing to-day say Middleton began his advance this morning. Battle is expected at Patoche to-morrow.

Captain Phelan's Assailant Acquitted.

NEW YORK, May 6.—This afternoon, when the jury trying Richard Short for stabbing Captain Phelan retired, the lobbies of the courthouse remained thronged with people. The jury having made known that an agreement had been reached, were brought into court and asked what their verdict was. "Not guilty," answered the foreman. Short's friends set up a tremendous shout, but were quickly quieted by the officers. The judge frowned in indignation and amazement at the verdict, and said: "Gentlemen, I am astonished at your verdict. You are discharged from all further service on this panel." "I move for the discharge of the prisoner," said Councillor Brook. "Granted," said the Court, in a manner that seemed to show that his honor was anxious to get rid of such extraordinary business.

Sacramento Honors Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker.

SACRAMENTO, May 6.—The city is in complete holiday attire. Business is entirely suspended to honor Mrs. Margaret E. Crocker for her many acts of public beneficence, the latest of which was the bestowal on the city of the E. B. Crocker Art Gallery, valued at a half million dollars. The demonstration took the form of a grand floral festival in the pavilion building, the interior of which was completely hidden by contributions, ranging from bouquets to immense set pieces, from all parts of the State. In the afternoon there were congratulatory exercises by two thousand school children. The formal presentation of the Art Gallery was made in the evening.

LUMSDEN RESIGNS.

He Says He Cannot Agree With Gladstone's Policy.

CHURCHILL DENOUNCES THE MINISTRY.

He Threatens to Cut Off Their Supplies—The King of Denmark Offers to Act as Arbitrator.

Associated Press Dispatches to The Times.

LONDON, May 6.—The Times this morning complains of the reticence and ambiguity of the statements of the Government in regard to the Afghan question. It severely criticises the action of the Government in recalling Sir Peter Lumsden, as the frontier question will be all settled before he can possibly arrive in London, and that, therefore, any information he may have will be worthless so far as negotiations with Russia in London are concerned.

The Standard in an editorial says: "The recall of Sir Peter Lumsden completes the picture of English humility."

SIR PETER LUMSDEN RESIGNS.

LONDON, May 6.—A dispatch from Simla to Reuter's Telegram Company says that Sir Peter Lumsden has resigned the position of British-Afghan Boundary Commissioner, because of his inability to agree with the policy of the home government.

Denmark is willing to act as arbitrator of the dispute between England and Russia, should her services be requested by both countries.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—The Czar has issued a decree creating two trans-Caspian reserve battalions.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 6.—There is no appearance here of any abatement in warlike preparations. The mobilizing of rifle battalions in Finland continues.

LONDON, May 6.—The Daily News is authorized to deny that Russia has stipulated that England shall not occupy Port Hamilton. The News believes that Russia has offered England positive assurance she has no intention of taking Herat.

COPENHAGEN, May 6.—The King of Denmark has informed Russia that he is willing to act as arbitrator if he was so requested by England.

LORD CHURCHILL PROTESTS.

LONDON, May 6.—Lord Churchill, addressing a Conservative meeting to-night, protested against the commission on frontier delimitation being removed to London to be dealt with by an imbecile foreign office. Russia, he said, had always objected to the presence of Sir Peter Lumsden, and now the government had gratified Russia by recalling General Lumsden. It was time for the Tories to endeavor to bring about a change in the advisers of the Crown by refusing supplies.

THE BROOKLYN FIRE.

The Work of Searching the Ruins Still in Progress.

BROOKLYN, May 6.—The work of digging out the bodies of victims of yesterday's fire commenced this morning. The extreme heat yesterday prevented any systematic search. The ruins were surrounded by thousands of people, some merely curious, while others had a sad interest in watching the work. After two hours' work the remains of another body was found, and has been identified as that of Edward Butler. Up to 12 o'clock m. none of the bodies recovered had been fully identified, although one of them is believed to be that of Daniel Lowry, engineer of the burned buildings. The other two bodies will probably never be fully identified. Up to noon to-day nine persons had been reported as missing.

At 3.30 there were three bodies found and at five o'clock the workmen took out two more. This made nine discovered during the day. All were horribly burned.

A VICTIM OF SUNDAY'S FIRE.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Alfred Kretzmer, aged 10 years, died early this morning in Bellevue hospital, from internal injuries received at the fire in First avenue on Sunday morning. He is the eleventh victim.

MINISTER KEILEY.

A Report that Austria Objects to His Appointment.

LONDON, May 6.—An Exchange Telegraph dispatch from Vienna states that Baron Von Shaeffer, Austrian minister at Washington, has been instructed by his government to object to the appointment of Keiley as United States Minister to Austria. It is supposed that the fact of Keiley's wife being a Jewess is the reason for the objection, although nothing definite in regard to the cause of this action of the Austrian government is known.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The State Department has not yet received any protest from the Austrian government concerning the appointment of Minister Keiley to Vienna. The cabled rumor that objection would be made against him because his wife is a Jewess finds no credence in administration circles. This government recognizes no difference between Jew and Gentile. It is also remarked that Mrs. Keiley is not a Jewess, except by parentage, as she abjured her religious faith when she married a Catholic.

WASHINGTON, May 6.—The Austrian Minister to this country said to an Associated Press reporter to-night that he had received no communication from the home government concerning Minister Keiley.

Bayard.

Mr. Secretary Bayard is in hard luck. His officers do not seem to "pan out" well. The Philadelphia News makes an effective summary of his troubles: "His Minister to England is being hounded down by the leading Democratic organ in New York City. His Minister to Russia has had to withdraw on account of his political disability. His Minister to Brazil at first refused the office. His Minister to Peru is objectionable at home. His Consuls to Manchester and Nice have refused their appointments. He is in a disagreeable snarl with the Minisier to Hayti, and now his Minister to Italy [Keily], has been obliged to withdraw because he is not acceptable to the Italian government. Such a record can hardly be inspiriting to the Secretary of State. It shows, too, a strange unfamiliarity with the persons he has chosen, or a disregard of diplomatic propriety and of good judgment that is very prejudicial to the fame of a Secretary of State. In no case does Mr. Bayard seem to have pleased his party, though the men he has named are not especially objectionable to Republicans. Mr. Bayard is in hard luck."

When Kelly was withdrawn from the Italian mission, on account of an offensive speech delivered by him against the Italian government fourteen years ago, he was appointed to the Austro-Hungarian mission, although it was thought in Washington, outside of the White House, that the chance to get rid of him altogether should have been improved. And now word comes by telegraph that the Austro-Hungarian government does not want Mr. Keily, and a fresh complication surrounds Richmond's ex-Mayor. (This statement lacks confirmation, however.) Perhaps he had best gracefully retire. He made a speech only recently exhibiting a still disloyal spirit to the Government, and when his attention was called to it, repeated his virulent declarations of hostility to the reconstruction measures. Mr. Keily needs reconstruction him self.

It has always been a mystery to most persons that anyone should be so idiotic as to invest in Confederate bonds. The Charleston News and Courier furnishes an explanation: "Judah P. Benjamin, Secretary of State of the Confederacy from 1862 until its collapse, was the originator of the plan by which a demand was created for the bonds. At different times the Confederate Congress voted large sums for secret service, the principal deposits being in London and Paris banks. The funds were placed to the credit of citizens of Great Britain and France who were friendly to the South. At the close of the war there was an unexpended balance of $5,080,000. Mr. Benjamin consulted with these agents as to the disposition of the money, and it was agreed that it should not be surrendered. The question was then how to disburse the money so as to benefit those entitled to it. It was concluded that the people who had given their names to the Confederacy for its bonds were entitled to the money, and the bonds were advertised for, and to cover the real object of the movement it was hinted that the bonds were to be held by speculators and that suit was to be instituted against the United States for their payment."

This is not quite the whole story. Whatever the advertised intentions of Benjamin were, the practical outcome appears to be that he and his associates failed to find the real owners of the gold. Benjamin died very rich.

A FUR seal was captured by the tug Relief off the Farallones on Saturday. They are very rare in this latitude, but that they live here at all leads to the suggestion that they might be raised in some inclosed arm of the sea.—[San Francisco Post.

It is not so much quiet waters, but quiet lands, that the fur seal needs to encourage its presence in any particular spot. It is a timid, sensitive, highly-organized animal, mighty lively in the sea, but lumbering and ungainly on land, and easily driven away from its habitat. The fur seal will never thrive or become numerous on the populous shores about San Francisco, without a measure of protection which it would be impossible to secure for it there. The islands of the Santa Barbara channel, or other islands off the southern coast, are well suited for breeding places for this valuable furbearing animal; and if their rookeries, when started, could only be religiously protected, as is the case in the far North, where the seals are counted by millions, this valuable interest might possibly be built up on our own shores.

THE Boston Herald (Democratic) says: "The fact that a Southern man fought against the Union, under a mistaken idea of the interests of his section and the obligations of the Constitution, does not prevent us from giving him our respect, if he has qualities worthy of respect. But a man who lived in the North, and who fought against his country's flag and the sentiments of his neighbors, must have been a traitor of peculiar meanness. Such a person should never be placed in any position of trust or emolument. That is why we consider the appointment of Pilsbury a mistake."

GENERAL KOMAROFF is a soldier. He did not bother his head with diplomacy, but marched straight forward into the Afghan country and seized what he wanted, while to the government at home was left the work of throwing dust in the eyes of the Gladstone ministry. The "son of a mosquito" understands his business. He holds the fort (of Penjdeh) while Sir Peter Lumsden is recalled to England.

NEIGHBORHOOD NEWS.

SAN GORGONIO.

AGRICULTURAL PROGRESS—GRAND VIEWS.
Correspondence of the TIMES.]

SAN GORGONIO, May 2.—The storm just ended adds 2½ inches of rainfall, making 15½ inches for the season. Nature assumes (were it possible) an additional tint to its hue, and the granger is assured of an abundant harvest. As I stand on the porch of the Summit House, the new hotel the San Gorgonio Land and Water Company have just completed on their beautiful 1,500-acre tract at San Gorgonio Heights, (which, by the way, is now receiving its furnishing and will be opened in a few days), I can at a glance look over 10,000 acres of wheat and barley in its various degrees of advancement, and as the breeze passes over these vast fields of emerald, producing a mimic ocean of wave, varying in hue as the sun's rays are reflected, contrasted with the snow-covered mountains surrounding the valley, looking down with cool indifference upon this ever-changing field of wealth, it is a sight worthy of a journey across the continent to behold. The San Gorgonio valley is one of the few localities in Southern California where grain, grapes, and the various kinds of fruits can be, with thorough cultivation, raised to perfection without irrigation, producing a superior quality of grain and grapes, and fruit of better flavor than can be attained on soil in lower altitudes. Of the 40,000 acres in the valley most of it is under cultivation. Nature has indeed made San Gorgonio valley one of the charming spots of California.

Notwithstanding its native loveliness its inhabitants are not so completely absorbed in temporal interests that the moral welfare does not keep pace. State Deputy Castle has just organized a lodge of Good Templars of thirty-two charter members and the Rev. Mr. Sayer has just located here in charge of the Presbyterian church. A more commodious school building is expected soon to be erected and other improvements are "on the slate" and will soon follow. OBSERVER.

CRESCENTA.

VARIOUS ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM THE NEW FOOTHILL COLONY.
Correspondence of the TIMES.]

CRESCENTA, May 5.—At La Boca Del Shields Cañon 3.28-96 inches of rain fell in April.

Mr. Cunningham sent a load of potatoes to market a few days ago. Mr. Kendall marketed a lot yesterday. Mr. A. J. Spencer has had potatoes on his table from Crescenta soil some weeks. The potatoes are so large that neighbor astonishes neighbor by exhibits. The saying goes, "Who would have thought Crescenta soil had such adaptation to the American tuber?"

A postoffice and a public school are both needed and deserved in Crescenta. The volume of mail matter exchanged entitle Crescenta to the one, and the number of children of school age more than supply the legal condition for the other.

Mr. A. J. Spencer suggests a postoffice circuit for the existing postoffices of Verdugo and La Cañada, and the ought-to-be existing postoffices of Crescenta and Monte Vista.

May opened on Crescenta with a brilliant midnight, a cloudless and fogless sunrise, a mountain breeze filtering down through pines, water-maples and bay-trees, a shining May-day noon, seraphic with a dry and gentle seabreeze.

A swarm of bees are at home in a hole in the ground, under an orange tree, at Terrace a Vista, in the citrus grove of Dr. B. B. Briggs.

The family of A. J. Spencer were startled a few days ago by the noise of monsters rushing upon each other in battle. Mr. Spencer, on approaching the seat of war, was in time to see an unusually large California lion retreating toward the mountains. The other combatants had vanished.

W. W. Beach saw a bear a few days ago on the Crescenta side of the Sierras. S.

SIERRA MADRE.

A DIFFERENCE AMONG CHURCHMEN.

"Member" writes the MIRROR from Sierra Madre, criticising a letter in the Pacific Churchman written by Rev. A. G. Trew of San Gabriel. Mr. Trew tells the Churchman that there are about 40 families in the settlement, of whom about one-quarter "belong to the church, but have no place of worship of any kind." "Member" shows that there are 33 families in the settlement, only two of whom claim to be Episcopalians. There is one Quaker family, and the rest are about equally divided among the Baptist, Methodist, Presbyterian and Congregational denominations. Nearly three years ago a Sunday school was permanently established; and for the last two years and a half there has been regular preaching nearly every Sunday, the Sundays being divided among the different denominations. The implication of the Churchman letter that Mr. Trew is making the first move to ward religious services is resented. Nor is it true that the settlement "has no place of worship of any kind." Meetings are held in the new and commodious school house, and before its completion were held in Mr. Carter's building.

"Member" thinks Mr. Trew claims too much of the settlement and its religious progress for the Episcopalians.

Political Paraphrahs.

St. Louis Globe-Democrat.]

Secretary Endicott has ordered that all persons holding places in his department must pay their debts promptly or be dismissed. It seems to be the policy of the administration to place every possible discouragement in the way of Democratic office seekers.

A Democratic cotemporary argues that the defeat of his party in Ohio was due to the fact that Thurman has not been recognized by the administration. Thurman seems to exist nowadays principally for the purpose of being hoisted as a cold-wave flag.

Every Mussulman who makes his pilgrimage to Mecca is honored during the rest of his life by the title of Hadji. If similar distinctions were conferred upon every Democrat who makes a pilgrimage to Washington, Missouri would in a short time be full of Hadjis.

The late Richard Grant White labored earnestly all his life to maintain the dignity and purity of the English language. It is likely that his death was hastened by having to listen to the wild, untutored exclamations of the Democrats on the subject of civil service reform.

Appropriating Another's Letter.

Alta California, May 3.]

Yesterday John E. Sexton was brought from Los Angeles by United States Deputy Marshal Hayes, on the charge of taking a registered letter addressed to a man named Seeley. It is said that Sexton took the draft contained in the letter and appropriated it to his own use.

Song of the English Radicals.

"It was but a dream * * *
When I thought that a war would arise in defense of the right,
And the glory of manhood stand on his ancient height,
Nor Britain's sole god be the millionaire."
—Tennyson's "Maud."

'Oh! for one hour of Cromwell and the Lord."

Ye shopkeepers of England, ye hucksters high and low,
Be of good cheer, the "Grand Old Man" is "parleying" with the foe;
What matter for the thousand lives of Afghan patriots slain,
They put their trust in England's faith, but found the trust was vain.
They thought (poor fools!) that England's might brought succor to the weak,
And battled with stern tyranny, to aid the poor and meek.
But we do hold that ancient plan is foolish, vain and wrong,
And now we battle with the weak and parley with the strong.
The malcontents, impolitic, our leader's ways disdain,
And tell us of the "Grand Old Man" who fought on Naseby's plain;
They say that he for England's friends would England's foes defy,
And while he "trusted in the Lord" he "kept his powder dry."
And ever ready for just cause to dare the fight remained,
And being ready for the war, an honored peace maintained;
But we're for "peace at any price," and will that maxim keep,
And a thousand foreign soldiers' lives is really very cheap.
So put these warlike trappings off, and don the peddler's pack,
And stoop so low in humbleness 'twill fit the bended back,
And fling aside the helmet bright, away with lance and shield,
And sell (for cash) to bolder hands the blade we dare not wield,
The scarlet suit of lacen gold may tempt some savage chief,
And with the money that it brings we'll purchase corn and beef;
And when the flag (lest it offend) is laid away and furled,
The hucksters cry shall sound instead of "drum-beat round the world."

Santa Ana, May 4, 1885. A. J.

It is no wonder that Eola Tea retains its aroma and invigorating virtues so well, considering that the tender Formosa Oolong and Japan leaves composing it were packed, while hot from the curing vessel, into the Perfection Tea Can, thus enclosing with them the very air of Japan. Stocks and Bonds.

By Telegraph to the Times.

NEW YORK, May 6.—Government bonds unchanged, except a decline of ⅛ in 3s.

There has been a decided reaction in the stock market to-day. At the opening of the Board the bears were treated to a genuine surprise by the strength displayed throughout the list, but especially in New York Central and Union Pacific, and this was followed by an advance in leading rates for the former, which did not culminate until as much as ⅝ of 1 per cent. was paid for the use of stock for the day. The rally was also accompanied by a decided improvement in the amount of business done, and the advance was not checked until after one o'clock. Late in the day an effort was made to depress prices, but the decline was checked before three o'clock, and the market closed strong at quotations which show advances in almost everything on the list, gains being from ¼ to 1 per cent. The belief is spreading that the unreasonable war in freight rates among western roads is being carried on principally for speculative purposes, and the sentiment of the street to-day is that this will continue until the officials who are interested in the stock market have sufficiently supplied themselves with long stock, which they sold some time ago at high prices. It is evident that some of the leading bears are more actively engaged in the market again during the past day or two than for weeks previous, and the short interest in some of the active stocks, especially Union Pacific, is believed to be very large. Pacific Mail made no rally in the last hour, but closed at the lowest price of the day, with a net gain of ¼ per cent. The lowest prices were generally at the opening. The highest prices were made after one o'clock in most cases, and closing prices are a little below the highest of the day.

KELLOGG'S

Anti-Bilious Worm Wafers

REMOVE ALL KINDS OF WORMS (WILL not remove the head of the Tapeworm), without the aid of other remedies. They act as a mild cathartic, and are useful in regulating the bowels, for costiveness, indigestion, sour or weak stomach. The symptoms of stomach worms are: Foul tongue, eyes heavy and expressionless, dry, hacking cough, sallow complexion, dark and blue circles around the eyes, foul and disagreeable breath, constant picking of the nose, grinding of the teeth, and starting up with terror and fright during sleep, at times very feverish accompanied with great thirst, he cheeks flushed and then again as pale as death and white around the mouth, the belly hard and swollen, short, cramping pains in the stomach. These worms sometimes knot up in the throat, causing death by strangulation. The symptoms of Ascarides generally called seat, or pin worms, are noticed by an itching sensation of the lower end of the bowels or rectum. There are other kinds of worms that inhabit the human system, but their symptoms are similar to those above mentioned. Persons can be sure when their children have the above symptoms that they are troubled with worms, and that KELLOGG'S WORM WAFERS will expel them in all cases. Can be sent by mail on receipt of price. Price per package, $1.

THE BAPTISTS.

The Conference Ended and Convention Opened.

The Ministers' and Deacons' meeting met, as per adjournment, at 9:30 a. m. yesterday.

Prayer by Rev. W. M. Kincaid.

A paper, prepared by Jas. H. Rowe, of Riverside, was read by Rev. J. H. Garnett, of Dixon. Subject: "How to Spend the Lord's Money." The essayist said all the Lord's money should not be given to one object. A church should first support its pastor, then furnish a place of worship, and then in order of importance, a theological school to train ministers for the work. Home missions should receive attention before foreign. Members should not borrow money to give to the cause of God. Some give for looks, some for policy. Be sure and give from principles and pure motives. Rev. A. M. Petty thought if a man would give his note in his own business he might in the Lord's. J. J. Woolsey thought men should be very careful how they go in debt and expect the Lord to meet the demands.

Rev. P. W. Dorsey thought we should equally love and work for home and foreign missions. He thought only good and pure men should be supported with the Lord's money, and places promising strength to the denomination.

A. J. Frost, D. D., said money spent in foreign missions would accomplish much more in proportion than money spent at home—about 18 to 1.

O. C. Wheeler liked the paper. The planning of denominational work was good.

"The Business Man as a Factor in the Church," an address by Rev. J. H. Garnett of Dixon. He said Christian business men are needed in the church. The busy man has more time for church work than any one else. Busy men are men who succeed everywhere.

B. C. Wright thought the church should carry more business into it.

Discussion was had by Dr. Frost, Dr. Gray, Revs. Petty and Jordan, all commending the points established by the speaker.

Rev. Chas. Button, of Riverside, read a paper, "The Ordination of Deacons." He said the word meant one who serves in the church, either in the first or second office. That the office was not original or fundamental, but one growing out of the necessities of the church. That more may be included in the office than mere serving of tables, as two of the first seven were preachers. That the qualifications for the office are as high and run parallel with that of the minister.

B. C. Wright thought some deacons poor sticks. They ought to be business men.

Rev. McLane wanted to know if the office was perpetual. The essayist thought it was.

Rev. A. C. Herrick said in the North the deacons are not ordained.

Dr. Pendleton said in the North the practice is not uniform, some ordaining, others not.

Dr. Harwell said in the South, after fasting and prayer the church elected, and then always ordained their deacons by prayer and laying on of hands. The question was ably and interestingly discussed by several brethren.

The afternoon session opened with prayer by E. R. Stockwell.

The Chairman introduced to the conference, Dr. C. F. Tolman, of Chicago, Dr. J. C. Baily, of Michigan, and Rev. Mr. Smith, of Duarte.

An interesting paper was read by Rev. W. H. Stenger, of San Diego. Subject: "Government in the Sunday School; by the teacher, by the Superintendent, and by the church." The teacher's rule should be love. The Superintendent occupies a responsible position. The church should elect the Superintendent either direct or by its members in the school.

Rev. J. C. Jordan thought the paper good.

"Should a Baptist minister immerse one who will become a member of a pedo church?" was ably discussed by Drs. Pendleton, Frost, Abbott, Gray, Parker, Bailey, Revs. Jordan, Woolsey, Jesse and others. When by a vote of 19 to 2 it was decided that it should not be done.

The Philosophy of the Atonement was discussed ably by Prof. M. Dozier, of the Normal School, Los Angeles.

The paper was considered by Dr. Frost and Rev. J. Woolsey.

Rev. S. S. Fisk, of Pasadena, delivered a short address upon "Scripture discipline and is it properly administered by Baptist churches?"

Time being short the subject was not discussed.

The President of the Normal School, through Prof. Dozier, invited the conference to attend the opening of the school Friday morning.

Rev. A. C. Herrick, Deacon W. R. Strong and B. C. Wright were appointed Executive Committee.

Committee to prepare Constitution and By-Laws by next meeting consisted of Rev. J. H. Garnett, Dr. Abbott and H. E. McCune.

A vote of thanks was extended to the ladies for kind entertainment; and the meeting adjourned.

THE GENERAL BAPTIST CONVENTION OF CALIFORNIA

was called to order at 7:30 last night by Benj. C. Wright, of San Francisco, the President. About sixty-five delegates were present, from thirty churches and four new churches asking admission.

The convention sermon was preached by Rev. De W. T. Vard Doren, from Malachi III., 10. It was an earnest appeal for devoted consecration to the work.

The following officers were elected for the ensuing year: President, Benj. C. Wright, San Francisco; First Vice-President, H. E. McCune, Dixon; Second Vice-President, Prof. M. Dozier, Los Angeles; Secretary, Wm. B. Thompson, San Francisco; Treasurer, W. R. Strong, Sacramento; Assistant Secretary, Rev. J. F. Moody, Pomona; Statistical Secretary, Rev. J. B. Hartwell, D. D., San Francisco; Auditor, P. D. Cone, San Francisco.

The following committees were appointed:

On Enrollment—Rev. J. S. Jesse, Rev. J. C. Jordan, J. R. Bennett.

On Nominations—Rev. J. Herndon Garnett, J. C. McCoy, E. R. Stockwell.

On Arrangements—Rev. P. W. Dorsey, Rev. S. B. Morse, Rev. J. W. Parker.

This morning's programme is as follows:

9 to 9:30, devotional exercises, led by Rev. J. S. Jesse.

9:30 to 9:45, reports of Executive Committee and Treasurer, followed by discussion on ways and means for raising money for home mission work.

10:30 to 12, first twenty minutes devoted to woman's home mission societies, followed by reports from missions and their fields.

THE CHIEF OF POLICE.

Some Brief Sermons on This Much-Quoted Text.

Nobody believes for a moment that Chief McCarthy began the assault upon Glowner. Glowner himself does not pretend it, unless he has changed his tune since Tuesday night, when he declared that he walked up to the McCarthys and that he and the Chief struck at the same time. The Express does not believe the Chief was the assailant—as its editorial practically admits. Neither does the Herald believe so. Yet both papers—the former with timid innuendo, the latter with undisguised venom—lay the entire blame on the Chief. Neither has a word against Glowner, who has been the aggressor from the very first.

The howl is still kept up that Council is neglecting the city business to wrangle over the Chief of Police. True, but whose fault? A status quo was established when Council accepted the Chief's resignation, and there was no excuse for further uproar. But the brothels, the discharged policemen, the six obstructive Councilmen, and the Express and Herald were not content. They insisted upon continuing the riot, and the responsibility rests with them. The people are not fools.

The Hurled insinuates that if Chief McCarthy again defends himself from a poltroon's assault, a vigilance committee will be formed, etc. This is purely sensational and imaginative as applied to the case in hand. If any such measure should ever be undertaken, it will be by the great mass of honest people who, with opened eyes, will see to it that an honest officer shall not be lawlessly driven from his place by persecution and violence. The outcome of the formation of a vigilance committee (for which there is of course no call at this time) would be the direct opposite of what the Herald intimates and desires.

The Sorehead organ and the Bighead organ are alike in the last ditch of desperation as to the Chief of Police.

The woes of the new committee to investigate the childish charges against the Chief are beginning. Nearly every hour in the day Messrs. Bullis or Santee may be seen buttonholed by some of the conspirators. Holbrook escapes—there is no need of trying to wear him out.

The Herald alleges that the McCarthy-Glowner satisfaction of poetic justice has caused a sentiment of widespread indignation in the community, irrespective of party. The allegation is indicrously groundless. The Inflated makes the characteristic mistake of spelling "community" with an M-e.

The TIMES report of Tuesday's council meeting was the only real report published. So every disinterested outsider there present will testify.

Neither the Chief nor his son were armed when Glowner struck from behind and fled. The allegations of the Express and Herald to the contrary are not true.

The Express purports to give "expressions of opinion regarding the late battery" adverse to the Chief. The only such opinions it has been able to scare up are two—one alleged to be by an anonymous business man; the other by Billy Manning, prize fighter and proprietor of a dive. The Express knows where to go for backing

Now that the Chief has a grave charge hanging over him the Mayor should suspend him.—[Express.

A short time back the Express was Mayor's clerk; it now looms up as Mayor's adviser.

It is notable that the conspirators never want their charges tried. They bring them; and then, on the ground that charges have been brought, demand the Chief's expulsion. For instance, yesterday's Express says of the latest silly charges: "Evidence or argument is hardly necessary upon the subject, and the matter should be acted upon without further delay."

Everything bears out the Chief's declaration that Glowner made the assault upon him. The Chief, much as Glowner deserved a thrashing at his hands, would not have chosen to assault him just before a ticklish meeting of Council.

Y. M. C. A. Concert.

The first of the Y. M. C. A. Serial Concerts, for the benefit of the association, was rendered last evening to a large audience. Each number was enthusiastically received. The "Angel City Quartette," comprising Messrs. Booth, Lawrence, Fanning, Barker and Snook, with Mr. Gottschalk as accompanist, were a prominent feature of the concert. The readings by Miss Belle Parsons were capital. These concerts will be given about every fortnight and merit success. The association is endeavoring to concentrate its attention upon young men. In our rapidly growing city the young men form a large proportion of the population, and the safety and future advance of the city will depend upon the character of the young men of to-day. The gentlemen of the quartette are interested in the work of the association and have proposed and undertaken to carry out this series of concerts to advance this work.

A Chance for a Good Investment.

One of the best investments that can be made at present is in Long Beach stock. There are only 1000 shares in all, the par value of which is $100,000. The lands and franchises of the company are certainly very cheap at from $200,000 to $300,000 at present values. If a railroad connection is made, as is now intended, the property will be worth double this sum. A very limited amount of this stock is now offered at par.—[Adv.
